

Unravel the day

M&L: T. Carlström

Search the black book of your life try to find what you've been hiding from make the pages come alive when it comes around what have you done

Every page you read, is another day at sea every night sky, is another wave you ride

Set it all in motion put it in to play burn all the lights and watch them fade get it moving it's time to get away start to unravel the day open the black box of your life see what happened that made you fall is it really worth the time that you spend trying to mend it all every song you sing, is another lullaby every cloud you climb, is another day on the ground

Raining In Paris

M&L: T. Carlström

It's raining paris, and your heart's drowning there with every raindrop that falls, you're gasping for air you try to swim to the safety of the sea of no cares
'cause it's raining in paris and your love's drowning there the home of romance is abandoned and scared you stand in the middle of it's old city square looking for someone to give you a hand to try find directions to the what you had planned

dark heavy clouds are crowding your skies a downpour of feelings flowing from your eyes it's drenching the ground where affection should lie with a love that's forsaken you're trying to rise

Nowhere To Run

starts with a bang and never lets you go no second chance to turn around to what you know somewhere in between night and day it went astray nowhere to be seen running wild out in the fields no place to hide - nowhere to run from all the lies a crazy dance - moving to the beat of time where did it go did you see it go away no one knows the meaning of this new charade there is nowhere to run nowhere to hide until it's finally gone catch the dream if you can don't try to run, it will get you in the end

no place to hide from this crazy crazy dance

This Summer Love

M&L: T. Carlström

I saw you everywhere when you weren't there now that you are here you saw me

out of the corner of my eye came a hug and a smile
from a love lost in time we know the end of to night a taste of days gone by a love that's meant to die

this summer love

with the sun in your eyes your love starts to rise a mirror lost in time back again tonight

from a love lost in time we know the end of this night
a love that's ment to die

this summer love
this summer love

Too Late To Hide

M&L: T. Carlström

she saw my face and smiled i saw her eyes and they cried cause we knew, it was too late to hide we don't know what to do we don't know what is true about love, it's never been ours take me all the way, let me guide you through this night stars come out to play, let them guide us through this night i caressed her face and smiled i kissed her cheek and cried

all you know that it's right still you want to hide from love, you never felt it before

take me all the way stars come out to play

take me all the way, let me guide you through this night we don't know what's true, about love it's never been ours

stars come out to play, and we knew it was too late to hide

Searching For Hope

All laughs and smiles In the time of need on the lookout for the next to keep trying to remember all the things they said the first time you got inside their heads like sunrays on a frozen mind your smile opens everything

The fall's coming closer for every day but every night it starts to fade away and they always seem to fall apart the plans to get out of the dark

You thought it was true, you thought it was real but what you looked for was a fantasy you hoped it was you, you hoped it was me searching for a promise to keep strange as fiction this world of yours where your blinded by your own sight a madmans mantra trying to get away pretty words for those who care to stay

Inside

M&L: T. Carlström

Far in to the mind I go, looking for the things to know always wondering how to do, the things that make it true Hidden in the maze inside, with time as my only guide hoping that my selfish path will show me what is

Inside me, inside you my only hope is that I find all the truth in me, truth in you to guide me through the mysteries inside you through a wilderness of lies, seeing through the blinded eyes, climbing to the soaring heights and falling from the skies rising from the troubled depth and stumbling on the words of faith believing that my hopeless path will show me what is

Inside me, inside you

We know how it all should be We know what we wanna see we know what we want to believe It's our memories that are

Inside me, inside you
You thought it was true, you thought it was real

Sunshine In The Night

took a wrong turn on a one way street like fighting the shadows that you feed against the flow in every stream objecting to all that's seen in world gone mad it's hard to see like catching butterflies with your feet tomorrow's come and left today wondering where it went astray we don't want to be heroes we just want to be free we don't want to be fighting we just want you to see

like sunshine in the night the laugh makes it shine makes it bright a calm in the storm
a shoulder that's solid solid like stone it's the lighthouse in the desert storm shows the way but never the shore draws you in to it's moving lights show you places where darkness hides

Everywhere

M&L: T. Carlström

Is this the way to go you want to give it a chance should I let you know I'm not up for a dance

your blue eyes sang a song of love full of longing to a life of trust your glowing lips so full of hope saying everywhere will be your home everywhere will be your home

Waiting for a call with an answer of desire hoping it explodes and sets the life on fire

what will you see when it starts to shine what will you hope when you start to rise what will you say when truth tells a lie what will you do, when you're alive
